ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

EDVOS is the specialist family violence service in the Eastern Metropolitan Region and covers the municipalities of Boroondara, Manningham, Whitehorse, Knox, Monash, Maroondah and Yarra Ranges.

We provide an integrated range of support and services to empower women and children who have experienced and are responding to family violence. We focus on ensuring the safety of women and children, and the accountability of perpetrators. We provide support, information, case management, risk assessment, safety planning, community education, programs for pet safety and a strong network of referral pathways to other services.

EDVOS provides equal opportunities to individuals without regard to race, colour, religion, national origin, age, disability, culture or sexual orientation. EDVOS has a Diversity Working Group that is committed to championing best practice in these areas and leads by example to break down the barriers to inclusion. EDVOS fosters a diverse workplace where people are free from discrimination and disadvantage and are afforded dignity and respect.

EDVOS have an EEO exemption in relation to gender discrimination, whereby we employ women only to our positions as per exemption number A196/2012. This is due to the specialist nature of our work and the services that we provide to women and children who have experienced or are responding to family violence in the community.

EDVOS is a child- focused and child safe organisation and we are committed to promoting and protecting the safety and interests of children.

EDVOS Vision

A community free from family violence, where everyone feels safe.

EDVOS Mission

To take a collaborative and evidence-based approach to supporting those experiencing family violence whilst also working to prevent family violence before it occurs.

Position Description

POSITION OBJECTIVE

The 2015-2016 State Budget committed $17.27 million in funding over five years to the Child Protection Flexible Responses Initiative. This initiative, now known as Family Violence Child Protection Partnership, collocates 17 Specialist Family Violence workers in Child Protection offices across the state and aims to strengthen Child Protection practice enable joint assessments, assist Child Protection to navigate the family violence system and strengthen opportunities to divert children away from statutory responses.

The Specialist Family Violence Advisor- Child Protection Partnership is a senior practitioner with extensive knowledge of family violence. The position is responsible for providing operational and strategic advice to Child Protection practitioners and their managers who undertake investigations of families where a child is or may be in need of protection due to family violence.

The position will assist Child Protection in the planning and conduct of investigations and support the development of plans that aim to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children and young people. The Specialist Family Violence Worker works collaboratively with the Child Protection senior managers and practitioners to provide effective service delivery and support.

Through co-location at a Child Protection office, the position aims to strengthen and improve responses to families subject to a Child Protection investigation.

The aim of the Family Violence Child Protection Partnership is to:

- support and promote improved understanding of the perpetrator's pattern of coercive control and its impact on children and the ability of the protective parent to safely parent;
- restore and enhance safe, child-centred parenting; and
- use this knowledge to assist Child Protection achieve the following improved outcomes for the service system and for the families reported to Child Protection.

POSITION SPECIFIC ACCOUNTABILITIES

Child Protection Client Outcomes

To improve assessment, planning and intervention in Child Protection investigations where family violence is, or is suspected to be, present in order to:

- Increase safety and stability for families
- Reduce the risk of harm to children;
- Safely reduce the incidence of re-reports to Child Protection and the number of children placed in out of home care;
- Strengthen the engagement of victims and perpetrators with support services; and
- Contribute to improved engagement with perpetrators towards changes in perpetrator behaviour and improved child centred parenting capacity.

Position Description

Service System Outcomes

To contribute to an integrated and collaborative child centred, family focused service system.

To achieve this outcome the Specialist Family Violence worker will work with Child Protection to:

- Contribute to an integrated and collaborative child centred, family focused service system
- Recognise the protective parent as a victim/survivor
- Recognise and respond appropriately to perpetrator behaviour and perpetrator- driven risk
- Identify and address systemic barriers to joint practice by family violence and Child Protection
- Strengthen referral pathways between Child Protection and specialist family violence services
- Encourage joint family violence risk assessments (CRAF assessments) and safety plans and enhanced information sharing
- Create a better understanding of each organisation's processes
- Identify, consistently document and respond to the risk from perpetrators to each child
- Support cultural safety - keeping Aboriginal people and other groups connected to their culture
- Improve the quality and depth of information sharing and documentation, including material that may be relevant for legal processes.

The Specialist Family Violence Worker's client is Child Protection. This reflects the intention of the Partnership to promote Child Protection's improved understanding of the dynamics of family violence, including perpetrator's pattern of coercive control and behaviours.

The position will operate at both strategic and operational levels.

Strategic Focus

The strategic focus involves supporting the development of more integrated service response by Child Protection and family violence services through:

- Identifying emerging trends, needs and gaps in service delivery and practice issues, particularly in the investigation phase, and to use this knowledge to generate changes in systems and approaches.
- Facilitating engagement between and promoting joint work by Child Protection and family violence services in the local area.
- Improving the quality and consistency of family violence related information, assessment and interventions in case notes.
